Good Morning,

The updates to the proposed TS submitted on June 30, 2015 are all grammatical in nature and do not change the technical meaning of the specifications. A Reactor Safety Board review found that throughout Chapter 6, "Administrative Controls," masculine pronouns and titles were used, e.g. "his designated" or "Chairman." Such language has been updated to be gender neutral and more inclusive, e.g. "a designated" or "Chair." Updates can be found in:

6.1, "Organization"

"his designee" to "designated alternate" in two locations

6.1.3, "Staffing," Section 1.d

"his designated" to "a designated"

6.1.3, "Staffing," Section 3.a

6.1.4, "Selection and Training of Personnel," Section 1

6.2.2, "RSB Charter and Rules," Section 4

"Chairman" to "Chair"

6.2.2, "RSB Charter and Rules," Section 5

"Chairman" to "Chair" in two locations

6.2.5, "Audit of ALARA Program"

"his designated" to "a designated"

6.5, “Experiment Review and Approval,” Section 2

“his designated” to “a designated”

6.6.1, “Action to be Taken in the Event of a Safety Limit Violation,” Section 2

“Chairman” to “Chair”

6.6.2, “Action to be Taken in the Event of a Reportable Occurrence Other Than A Safety Limit Violation,” Section 1

“his designated” to “a designated”

6.6.2, “Action to be Taken in the Event of a Reportable Occurrence Other Than A Safety Limit Violation,” Section 2

Please update the copy of our proposed TS on file to incorporate these changes.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
