General Comment

I guess this is the only way to get the sheeple to accept the new higher " back ground" levels...and fallout from Fukushima. I suppose those 1200 beagle puppies died because they didn't get enough low level radiation...

Welcome to the new age.....personally I'm avoiding seafood and fruit/veggies from the west coast. I suggest the same..Do you remember the seals in Alaska after 3/11/2011. They didn't handle the fallout very well . Next you will want to build a high school over a nuke dump to prepare our students.....fools
