

July 24, 2015

Bruce Carrico
U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission
Office of Federal and State Materials and Environmental Management Programs
Washington, DC 20555-0001

Phone: 301-415-7826

SUBJECT: Annual Nuclear Radiation Transport Report 10-23980-01 E

Dear Mr. Carrico:

Enclosed is the Annual Nuclear Radiation Transport Report for license 10-23980-01 E for 1/1-12/31/14. Please note that effective November 1, 2014, Kimberly-Clark Corporation spun off its Healthcare business to create a new standalone company, named Halyard Health, Inc. The corporate name, but not the facility name, is changing. If you have any questions, please contact me via the information provided under my name.

Sincerely,

Monica King, MBA.
Associate Director, Regulatory Affairs
Halyard Health
5405 Windward Parkway
Alpharetta, GA 30004

monica.king@hyh.com

678-477-4165 Phone

Enclosure – 1 report

CC: Dennis A Morris, Radiation Safety Officer

445503
1

| |
|--|
| ANNUAL SUMMARY MATERIAL TRANSFER REPORT 10 CFR 32.20 |
|--|

Reporting Period: January 1, 2014 to December 31, 2014

Licensee: Kimberly-Clark Corporation¹
1400 Holcomb Bridge Road
Roswell, GA 30076

License: 10-23980-01E

| Recipient | License # | Radionuclide | Physical form | Total Quantity |
|--|--------------|--------------|------------------------|----------------|
| Avent, Inc. 6620 South Memorial Place Suite 100 Tucson, AZ 85756 | 10-23980-01E | C-14 | Liquid | *0.0 mCi |
| | | | Solid | 554.8 mCi |
| U.S. Distribution – exempt quantities | N/A | C-14 | Capsule (1μCi each) | 323.4 mCi |

¹ Kimberly-Clark changed its name to Halyard Health 11/1/14

*The liquid quantity decreased to zero from prior year. The supplier no longer manufactures it. Avent, Inc. acquired larger quantity in 2012 to allow sufficient time for transfer to in house active pharmaceutical ingredient (API) manufacturing.

First batch of solid 14C compound brought into facility for validation of API synthesis.

Comments: None

All materials are transferred for use under §30.18 or equivalent regulations of an agreement state in accordance with §30.41.