

UNCLASSIFIED

ENCLOSURE 1

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

ENCLOSURE 1

Description of changes for the Nuclear Operation Group, Inc., Lynchburg, Security Training Qualification & Equipment Plan, Revision 14.

Primary purpose of this revision of the Nuclear Operation Group, Inc., Lynchburg, Training Qualification & Equipment Plan, Revision 14 is due to the company name change from Babcock & Wilcox to Nuclear Operation Group, Inc., Lynchburg.

The name Babcock & Wilcox has been replaced throughout the entire document with "NOG-L" or "site". In addition an Offensive Tactics Training Course has been added.

Page 4

Updates to the organizational structure.

The statement "The NOG-L Security Department is organized as four interdependent Units" has been deleted.

The statement "The site security program is organized as two interdependent Sections that report to the Manager of the Security Department" has been added.

The position of Information Protection Coordinator has been added as a position reporting to the DOE Unit Manager.

The Statement "the Security Department Manager reports to the NOG-L Division General Manager. The NOG-L Division General Manager reports to the President of NOG-L who reports to the President of the Babcock & Wilcox Company" has been deleted.

The Statement "The Security Department Manager reports to the NOG-L General Manager" has been added.

Page 11

Added a minimum requirement of 20 hours annually of Offensive Tactics Training for officers who are ARO, ACT or TRT beginning in 2016

Page 17

Added the Offensive Tactics Training Course

Added Course Scope

Added Length

Added Required Courses

Added Course Goals

Page 18

Added the Offensive Tactics Training Course to a requirement for certification as an Armed Response Officer and all officers meeting the physical criteria of ARO, ACT or TRT

Changed the ARO Training Course from 40 to 60 hours.

Added Offensive Tactics Training Course

Added Offensive Tactics Training Course Goals

UNCLASSIFIED