Here is some additional information in preparations for tomorrows clarification call.

FSAR section 2.5.2.6.3 is where sensitivity assessment of impact of supplemental subsurface investigation is described, as well as the follow-on sensitivity discussion in Appendix3JJ, Section 3JJ.7.

Earlier email:

Manny

The impact of 2013 results on the site response analysis was actually looked into. We concluded that the impact was insignificant so that the site response and SSI analyses did not need to be repeated. The sensitivity analysis is described in the response to RAI 02.05.04-16. The information in Chap. 3 is based on the original site work.

We can have a clarification on Thursday afternoon. I am checking on availability.

Thanks
Steve Franzone
