Subject: Notification of Interim Level 2 adjustment at the Utah Nuclear Engineering Program
2016 June – 2019 June

This letter is to provide notification that myself, Dr. Tatjana Jevremovic, Director of the Nuclear Engineering Program at the University of Utah (Level 2), have accepted a position at the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) beginning June 1, 2016.

Ryan C. Schow will serve as the Interim Level 2 for the University of Utah 100 kW TRIGA Reactor (License No. R-126, Docket No. 50-407). Mr. Schow satisfies the American National Standard ANSI/ANS and the University of Utah TRIGA Reactor Technical Specifications.

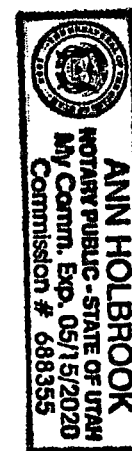

Mr. Schow is currently the Reactor Supervisor for the University of Utah TRIGA Reactor. He has performed as the Reactor Supervisor since June 2013. Mr. Schow will continue to perform as the Reactor Supervisor along with the addition of the Utah Nuclear Engineering Facility Manager responsibilities at the Level 2. Dr. Jevremovic will be available and readily in contact for consulting and review through a secure network connection using DevonWay software communications during her service at the IAEA.
