Dear Mr. Darke:

On March 5, 1997, I transmitted a letter to the Presiding Officer in this proceeding, in which I informed him that the NRC Staff ("Staff") had issued the requested license amendment, and enclosed a copy of the Staff's technical evaluation report and the revised license. Copies of this transmittal were sent to persons on the Staff's service list, including yourself; your copy was mailed to "P.O. Box 9999, Moab, Utah 84532," in line with the address you provided on your request for hearing dated January 30, 1997.

The U.S. Post Office has now returned your copy to me, marked "No Such Bx #" and "Returned to Sender/ No Such Address." Accordingly, I am herewith re-transmitting that letter to you, at the above address, which is the return address indicated on the envelope containing your submittal of March 3, 1997.

In order to assure that you receive any future mailings by the Staff in a timely manner, kindly inform me of the correct address to which any such transmittals should be sent.

Sincerely,
