Hello Ms. Lone Hill,

Thank you for your letter, dated January 13, 2017, responding to the NRC staff's invitation for a teleconference to continue consultation regarding the Dewey-Burdock ISR Project. Given the dates the Tribe has provided, the NRC staff proposes Thursday, January 26, 2017 at 12 PM ET as a potential date and time for the teleconference. If this date and time is convenient for you, I will provide a bridge line for your use.

If the proposed date and time is not convenient, the NRC staff is also available on the following dates:

Wednesday, January 25, 2017 – after 2 PM ET
Thursday, January 26, 2017 – OPEN
Friday, January 27, 2017 – OPEN
Monday, January 30, 2017 – OPEN
Tuesday, January 31, 2017 – after 3 PM ET
Wednesday, February 1, 2017 – 10 AM - 1 PM ET
Thursday, February 2, 2017 – after 3 PM ET

We invite you to select a time for the teleconference from those dates and inform the NRC staff so we may arrange for a bridge line for the teleconference.

During the teleconference, we hope to continue our discussions in more detail on the following topics:

- 1) Survey Approach, Methodology, Parameters, Participants, and Report
- 2) Involvement of Other Tribes
- 3) Programmatic Agreement

We look forward to hearing from you regarding the proposed date and time of the teleconference. If you have any questions or comments regarding the scheduling of this teleconference, please contact me at 301-415-7408.
