

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Derek Kilmer
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Kilmer:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Patty Murray
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Senator Murray:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Maria Cantwell
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Cantwell:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Marcy Kaptur
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congresswoman Kaptur:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Pete Visclosky
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Visclosky:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable C.A. Dutch Ruppersberger
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Ruppersberger:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Adam Smith
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Smith:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Joe Courtney
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Courtney:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Jim Cooper
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Cooper:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Tom Cole
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Cole:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Rick Larsen
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Larson:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Rob Bishop
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Bishop:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Donald Norcross
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Norcross:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Dan Newhouse
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Newhouse:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Jaime Herrera Beutler
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congresswoman Herrera Beutler:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Cathy McMorris Rodgers
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congresswoman McMorris Rodgers:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Denny Heck
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Heck:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable David Reichert
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Reichert:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Suzan DelBene
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congresswoman DelBene:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Pete Aguilar
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Aguilar:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs

January 10, 2017

The Honorable Frank LoBiondo
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman LoBiondo:

I want to provide you with an update on your December 12, 2016 letter regarding the potential expansion of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mission, given that the U.S. Navy is considering the private disposal of reactor components from the United States Ship Enterprise.

I apologize for the delay in the response. Please be assured that this is a high priority for the agency, and we expect to respond to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

/RA/

Eugene Dacus, Director
Office of Congressional Affairs