Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation
 ATTN: Mr. E. R. Inderbitzin, Supervisor
 System Insurance Department
 300 Erie Boulevard West
 Syracuse, New York 13202

Gentlemen:

We are enclosing herewith an amendment to your indemnity agreement reflecting the amendment to 10 CFR Part 140, "Financial Protection Requirements and Indemnity Agreements," effective March 1, 1972. The amendment to Part 140, a copy of which is also enclosed, gives effect to the recent increase from $82 million to $95 million in available nuclear energy liability insurance provided by Nuclear Energy Liability Insurance Association and Mutual Atomic Energy Liability Underwriters.

We will appreciate your indicating your acceptance of the amendment to your indemnity agreement in the space provided and returning one signed copy. If you have any questions about the foregoing, please let us know.

Sincerely,

Jerome Saltzman

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It details the steps involved in the accounting process, from the initial entry of data into the system to the final review and approval of the records.

3. The third part of the document addresses the challenges associated with maintaining accurate records. It identifies common sources of error and provides strategies for minimizing these errors, such as implementing strict controls and regular audits.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the role of technology in improving record-keeping. It highlights the benefits of using automated systems to process transactions and generate reports, while also noting the need for proper training and oversight.

5. The fifth part of the document concludes by emphasizing the ongoing nature of the record-keeping process. It stresses that records must be kept up-to-date and accessible at all times, and that the system must be regularly reviewed and updated to reflect changes in the business environment.
