Jennifer,

I am pleased to report that I have some information to share with you. We have no substantive comments on the March 30, 2015, Draft Completion Review Report (CRR) for the Hecla Mining Company Durita Site, and we encourage you to prepare a Final CRR. As you prepare the final report, please consider a technical edit of the document for consistency of format.

While you prepare a Final CRR for Durita, we will continue to perform our confirmatory technical review of the revised groundwater section. We expect that review to be completed by the end of June.

I am happy to schedule a phone call next week to discuss if necessary.

Thanks,
