PALO VERDE UNIT 1 FUEL LOADING

TO BE RESCHEDULED

PHOENIX -- Arizona Public Service Co. announced today (Feb. 13) that fuel loading for Unit 1 of the Palo Verde Nuclear Generating Station under construction about 50 miles west of here will be rescheduled because of several continuing problems and related corrective actions at the plant.

Ed Van Brunt, APS vice president - nuclear, said that problems with the Low Pressure Safety Injection pumps, which were discovered during startup testing of Unit 1, have not yet been completely resolved. "Because the pumps are on the critical path, we know that we cannot make the scheduled May fuel loading date. Also, the various corrective actions APS has taken since the Nuclear Regulatory Commission's Construction Assessment Team inspection of Unit 1 have affected the schedule."

Van Brunt said that APS is assessing the problems and the project schedule but does not yet have a new date for fuel loading nor does the utility know what the impact will be, if any, on overall Palo Verde cost or project schedule. "We expect to have more definitive information on these items during the week of March 5," he said.
