I approve the request to begin the solicitation process for a new member of the ACRS to replace Dr. William Shack. I join my colleagues on the Commission in expressing our disappointment that Dr. Shack has chosen to not seek a sixth term on the committee. His strong contributions to the ACRS have resulted in valuable improvements in the safety of nuclear reactors. His insights and advice will be missed in our ongoing dialogue with the ACRS.

Dr. Shack has provided invaluable advice and insight to me and other NRC Commissioners for 20 years. I thank him for his long service on the Committee and for his many contributions in assuring the health, safety, and security of the American people. His technical acumen, experience, and expertise will be missed sorely by the Committee and this agency. I wish him all the best in his retirement.
