Donald C. Cook Nuclear Plant Unit 1
Docket No. 50-315
DPR No. 58

June 11, 1976

50-315

Mr. Bernard Rusche, Director
Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation
U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission
Washington, D.C. 20555

Dear Mr. Rusche:

We hereby request a temporary extension of the Technical Specification surveillance testing time interval for the Donald C. Cook Nuclear Plant Unit 1 diesel generators. Surveillance Requirement 4.8.1.1.2.b requires that each diesel generator be demonstrated operable at least once per 18 months during shutdown by conducting a series of inspections, trips, startup on safety injection signal and loadings. This requirement is in addition to the 31 day loading tests conducted per Surveillance Requirement 4.8.1.1.2.a which are being performed in accordance with the requirements.

The 18 month time interval for the above extensive diesel generator testing, including the allowable extension per Surveillance Requirement 4.0.2.a, ends on June 26, 1976. We had planned on shutting down the Unit over a weekend in June 1976 to conduct the tests. However, due to forced outages and curtailments of other units and to system load requirements, it is essential that the Donald C. Cook Nuclear Plant Unit 1 be kept in service until the long 4th of July weekend.

1. The first part of the report is a general description of the project and its objectives.

The second part of the report is a detailed description of the methodology used in the study.
This includes a description of the data collection methods, the statistical analysis techniques used, and the results of the study. The results are presented in a series of tables and figures, which are discussed in detail in the text. The final part of the report is a conclusion and a list of references.

Mr. Bernard Rusche
