REGULATORY DOCKET FILE COPY

January 9, 1976

Donald C. Cook Nuclear Plant Unit No. 1
Docket No. 50-315
DPR No. 58

Mr. Benard C. Rusche, Director
Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation
U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission
Washington, D.C. 20555

Dear Mr. Rusche:

In our October 15, 1975 letter to you, we transmitted a report entitled, "Axial Power Distribution Monitoring System Experience and Peaking Factor Determination at the Donald C. Cook Nuclear Plant Unit No. 1." Forty (40) copies of Addendum No. 1, Section III C are hereby transmitted to you. This Addendum, dated December 31, 1975, covers the results of the Augmented Start-up Program Physics Tests conducted during November 1975.

The results of the load follow test demonstrate the ability to follow programmed load changes during which peaking factors are maintained essentially constant at their steady-state values. The special hot channel factor surveillance test demonstrates the operator's ability to quickly and easily return the axial offset to within the target band.

Very truly yours,

John Tillinghast
Vice President

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes the need for transparency and accountability in all financial dealings.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods and techniques used to collect and analyze data. It includes a detailed description of the sampling process and the statistical methods employed to interpret the results.

3. The third part of the document presents the findings of the study. It includes a series of tables and graphs that illustrate the distribution of the data and the results of the statistical analysis.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the implications of the findings and provides recommendations for future research. It highlights the need for further investigation into the factors that influence the results and suggests ways to improve the accuracy and reliability of the data.

5. The fifth part of the document provides a summary of the key points and conclusions of the study. It reiterates the importance of maintaining accurate records and the need for transparency and accountability in all financial dealings.

Mr. B. C. Rusche
