Hi Ryan,

Yes, there is a typographical error in the NRC transmittal letter to WDEQ. The sentence in question should've read (with the correction highlighted): "The NRC staff concludes in the draft EA that approving the license renewal request would not significantly affect the quality of the human environment." The word "not" was inadvertently left out of the sentence. This matches with the overall conclusion the draft EA.

Thanks,
Jim

James and Doug

Please find the letter from the DEQ expressing our comments. We were fine with the EA, but the cover letter to Robin had a different conclusion than the EA.
