Clara,

Thank you. If you need me to submit a physical notarized copy in person, I will accommodate. Look forward to the opportunity, as I noticed a few typos and errors. Regarding my voicemail, if there is a way to streamline submissions, while allowing all segments of society to easily submit, I would be glad to lend my comments, experience and points to the effort. Nonetheless, thank you for your flexibility and support in docketing my Petition to Intervene. If there are any future necessary steps in support of advancing my petition, please advise. Thank you for your service.

Best regards,

Albert Gomez

Mr. Gomez,

This is to acknowledge receipt of your voicemail regarding the issues you continue to encounter in your efforts to acquire a digital certificate. You mentioned your interactions with the NRC metasytem help desk and that your use of an Apple computer and the Safari software appears to hinder your access the NRC's Electronic Information Exchange system.

In the meantime, the petition which you submitted via e-mail on August 2, 2018, has been added to the docket for the Turkey Point Units 3 and 4 subsequent license renewal proceeding (named: Turkey Point 50-250 and 50-251-SLR), and is currently under review.

Mr. Gomez,

I am sorry you continue to have issues regarding your certificate application. Please contact the NRC's help desk at 866-672-7640. I am confident they can help with a Mac product. Also, you can leave the company name field blank, if it is not applicable. You will need the digital certificate in order to participate effectively in this proceeding. As you know the NRC e-filing rule requires electronic filing minus the establishment of good cause (see 10 CFR 2.302(g)(3)).

The help desk is copied on this message so they are aware of your issues and will be expecting your call.

Clara,

Thank you for the call today. First and foremost, I work off a MacBook Pro, so the only tutorial available which focused on Microsoft was not helpful. Also, the description process was a bit cryptic. In layman's terms, it could be cleaned up and made more simple with less friction. You may want to consider updating digital certification instructions and process, it is 5 years old and only Microsoft centric.

That said, I gave it a go and went through the steps. The enroll page asks for company information. Can you shed light on why you need my company information to authenticate my person and citizenship? Also, I am not submitting the petition for any company, non-profit or organization, but as a citizen.

Also, when I went through the step of downloading the Digital certificate getcacert.cer executable file, my computer began to have keychain issues with a pop window asking me to unlock my public key. Since this is anomalous to my standard process for signing digital certifications, I searched for fixes on apple. In lieu of running a patch, I went in and deleted the DOD, Class 1 and Class 3 application password keychains and this stopped the request for access and the pop window. I will attempt to obtain a digital certification tomorrow with the support of the help desk.

Please note, a good old notarized copy can be realized and mailed tomorrow, if that is an easier process.

Thank you again for the call and look forward to finally getting my petition to intervene into docket.

Best regards,
Albert Gomez
