PROGRAM SCOPE

This was an unannounced, routine inspection of the Hope College license. The licensee possessed material under this license for calibration of detection instrumentation for laboratory experiments and research. At the time of the inspection the licensee possessed a PuBe source, H-3, and an assortment of other isotopes as sealed sources that were exempt quantities. The RSO conducted source inventories and area surveys in accordance with the terms of the license. Access to all materials was restricted to authorized users.

Performance Observations

At the time of the inspection the lab in the Peale Science Center was been used for cell research using H-3 and the lab in VanderWerf Physics-Mathematics Hall was used to to calibrate detection instruments for laboratory experiments utilizing a linear accelerator. This inspection consisted of tours of the two laboratories used to store and handle the material, a review of selected records, interviews with licensee staff, and independent surveys. The inspector reviewed dosimetry reports, survey calibration records, leak test records, inventories, survey records, and utilization logs.

During the last inspection, one violation was identified for failure to use the laboratory in the Peale Science Center for more than 24 months for the purposes intended on the NRC license. The licensee completed corrective action as described. The inspector reviewed the corrective actions by reviewing the utilization log in the lab and interviewing the authorized user that handles material in that lab. This violation is closed.

No violations of NRC requirements were identified as a result of this inspection.
