

AGENDA

Subject: U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) Teleconference Meeting Regarding the Site Survey Methodology for the Dewey-Burdock In Situ Uranium Recovery (ISR) Project

Date: February 19, 2019

Time: 10:00am MT (12:00pm ET) – 1:00pm MT (3:00 ET)

Bridge line Information: 1-800-857-6197, pass code: 70540

Purpose: To start discussing the proposed draft site survey methodology for identifying Tribal sites of religious and cultural significance at the Dewey-Burdock ISR project in Fall River and Custer Counties, SD.

Agenda:

- Introductions – 5 mins, NRC Tribal Liaison
    - NRC staff
    - Oglala Sioux Tribe
    - Invited Tribes
  - Purpose and Goals – 5 mins, NRC Tribal Liaison
  - Meeting Ground Rules – 5 mins, NRC Tribal Liaison
  - Summary of February 8, 2019, Meeting – 5 mins, NRC staff
  - Site Survey Methodology Framework – 10 mins, NRC staff
    - NRC's March 16, 2018 Approach
    - Atomic Safety and Licensing Board Panel's October 30, 2018, Order
  - Introduction and Outline of the Site Survey Methodology – 2 hrs
    - Overview and description of the document, NRC staff and contractor
    - Discussion of Draft Site Survey Methodology – All parties
      - Objectives and Goals
      - Concepts, Terms, and Parameters
      - Methodologies Considered
- February, 22, 2019, Meeting – 5 minutes, Oglala Sioux Tribe
- Meeting Planning Updates
- Next Steps –10 mins, NRC staff
    - Key Decisions and Action Items