Dear David:

This letter is in confirmation of our telephone conversation of October 25, 1979, with regard to the document production of the Public Service Company of Oklahoma.

You stated that there may be some documents located in PSO's files in Tulsa which are responsive to certain of Houston's interrogatories but which have not yet been made available for the inspection of Houston's counsel. We agreed that you would review PSO's files and forward to me in Washington any responsive documents which have not yet been produced. The interrogatories at issue are numbered 5, 22, 49, 53 and 54. Please forward any such supplementary documents as soon as possible.

You also stated that all documents located in PSO's files in Tulsa that are responsive to any of Houston's other interrogatories or document requests have now been produced for the inspection of Houston's counsel.

Sincerely,

Peter G. Flynn
