Re: Amendment Request for New RSO for License 24-17037-02

To Whom It May Concern:

An amendment is being requested per 10 CFR 35.13 (c) to add Mr. Kenneth L. Andrews, M.S., DABR, as the new Radiation Safety Officer (RSO) for Perry County Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Andrews meets the training requirements as an experienced RSO under 10 CFR 35.57 and is currently serving in this capacity on material license 24-12699-01.

In addition I have enclosed a letter outlining the delegation of authority granted to him by Perry County Memorial Hospital to act in accordance with those responsibilities as outlined in 10 CFR 35.24, "Authorities and Responsibilities for The Radiation Protection Program", along with a second letter from Mr. Andrews accepting these responsibilities.

Please contact Mr. Andrews at (314) 991-8272 if you require any additional information.

Sincerely,

Christopher M. Wibbenmeyer, MBA, FACHE
Vice President Operations
Perry County Memorial Hospital

Re: Delegation of Authority as RSO for License 24-17037-02

Mr. Andrews,

Upon amendment to our material license, 24-17037-02, appointing you as Radiation Safety Officer, I hereby delegate authority to you to act in accordance with those responsibilities as outlined in 10CFR35.24, "Authorities and Responsibilities for The Radiation Protection Program". On behalf of the administration, communication with the NRC on our behalf is granted to ensure compliance with all regulations and to ensure the safe use of licensed materials at Perry County Memorial Hospital.

Sincerely,

Christopher M. Wibbenmeyer, MBA, FACHE
Vice President Operations
