Jason,

Because of the Holiday Season, the final report was received at my office at HQ until late December. Also with so many people on personal leave we may need a few extra days to send you the response. Per your report, NASA's response is due back to you by January 16th. We are hoping that you allow us to send you our response back to you by January 24th. If you need me to send you a formal request, please let me know. We really only had 1 ½ days to look at the attached report before most people at NASA were gone on Holiday leave.

If I need to call Ms. Patricia Silva, as stated in the report, also let me know.

Best regards,

Angel
