(File: 2-1510)

Gentlemen:

In my letter to you of May 26, 1981, AP&L committed to provide NRC a document which explains the methodology for determining values of addressable constants.

This is to advise you that a first draft of this document is nearing completion. We currently expect that, allowing time for internal review and comment, it will be submitted to NRC by September 11, 1981.

Very truly yours,
