Amendment to Motion To Compel Discovery
re Eddleman 41/65 and note

(at p.7)

Applicants are correct (8-19-83 response to my 8-4-83 motion) that two masonry drawings, CAR- 2167-G-0610 and -0611, were produced. Attorney Baxter identified these to me 8-25-83. Therefore, the request for masonry drawings to be produced under 65-4(a) in the 8-4-83 Motion to Compel is withdrawn. I had mistakenly relied on representations by various CP&L attorneys that no such were produced. Attorney Baxter says these two are all there are of the Harris base mat.

I also misunderstood a brief answer by counsel Baxter as "refusal" to supply certain info CP&L now says they will make available. (re 41-1(z), 8-19-83 Applicants' response at 5-6). I couldn't anticipate 8-4 what they might make available when he'd said "If we need to supplement our responses, we will!"

(8-19 resp at 3-4)

Re July 1 negotiating session: I was ready to negotiate, but Baxter suggested we wait until I'd seen the documents. Seeing them changed nothing in my views of 1 July. Attorney Baxter asks me to say his view is that he "wouldn't negotiate July 1 because you (W.E.) hadn't read the documents to be provided with that set of interrogatories, and thus weren't ready."

UPDATE on 37-B-15(b) by Wells Eddleman

"Cellular Basis and Aetiology of Late Somatic Effects of Ionizing Radiation", symposium proceedings, London, 27-30 March 1962 under the auspices of UNESCO and IAEA, reference number WN 610 H315 (UNC*Chapel Hill Health Sciences Library, Chapel Hill, NC) edited by Robert John Cecil Harris, published in London and New York (1963) by Academic Press.

Joint Intervenors' responses to II-67 and II-68 update my response to 37-B-14(a) and (b) in some respects. I adopt these modifications.

I have located two articles relevant to Eddleman 29, both from July 1983 Health Physics, Vol 45#1: pp 31-37, Iodine-129 in Mule Deer Thyroids in the Rocky Mountain West; pp61-66, Iodine 129 uptake and Effects of Lifetime Feeding in Rats. While I do not now rely on them, not having reviewed them in detail, I will make these available to Applicants for inspection & copying
