PETITIONERS SCHEDULING STATEMENT

Introduction

On or about February 23, 1993, counsel to Petitioner, Allen Mosbaugh, contact John Lamberski, counsel to Georgia Power Company. Mr. Lamberski was not interested in establishing discovery dates and advised the below-signed that he would be filing an appeal of the Board's February 18, 1993 Order and would seek a stay of all discovery. Earlier that same day below-signed counsel spoke with Charles Barth, counsel to Staff, who indicated that he believed he could accommodate any reasonable established discovery schedule reached by the parties.

Discovery from Georgia Power

With respect to discovery from Georgia Power Company, Petitioner anticipates the need to conduct one and a half weeks of depositions in the Birmingham, Alabama area; one week of depositions at the Plant Vogtle site; and one week of depositions at GPC's corporate offices is Atlanta. Petitioner would like to commence depositions as soon as possible (excluding the weeks of March 15, 1993 and March 22, 1993 due to conflicting schedules). Petitioner also anticipates serving subpoena duces tecum and requests for documents.

Discovery from Sources Within the NRC

With respect to discovery from sources within the NRC, petitioner will address that issue in his March 18, 1993 filing in response to NRC Staff's brief.

Future Date to Discuss Scheduling

Petitioner suggest that a conference between the parties and the Board occur on or about April 1, 1993. At that time petitioner should be able to discuss scheduling matters relating to a hearing, and other prehearing matters.

Respectfully submitted,
