Re: Docket No. 50-466

Dear Mr. Doherty:

This is to advise you that the Applicant admits that the copies described in items 160-163 of your Requests for Admissisons dated March 23, 1982 are true and correct copies of the documents identified therein with the exception of the hand-written notations that appear on such copies.

This is to further advise you that, by admitting as to the authenticity of such copies, Applicant does not admit the relevance of such documents to the proceedings now pending before the Licensing Board in the above-captioned proceeding and Applicant reserves the right to object to any attempt on your part to introduce such documents as evidence therein.

Very truly yours,

Scott E. Rozzell
