In the Matter of
PORTLAND GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY, et al
(Pebble Springs Nuclear Plant, Units 1 and 2)
Docket Nos. 50-514 and 50-515

Gentlemen:

As we advised the Staff by telephone on Friday, Portland General Electric Company has withdrawn its Application to the State of Oregon for a Site Certificate for the Pebble Springs Nuclear Plant. A copy of the Oregon Energy Facility Siting Council's Order dismissing our Application and Mr. Lindblad's statement which is mentioned therein are enclosed herewith.

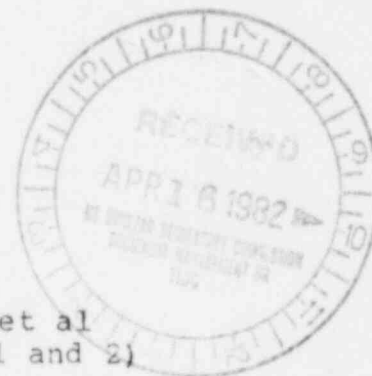

In addition, there is enclosed for the Board's and Staff's information a copy of an Order of the Oregon Public Utility Commissioner directing Portland General Electric Company to write off its financial investment in such plant or to show cause why it should not be required to do so.

In view of the fact that Portland General Electric Company is only one of the Applicants in this matter, the Application to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission for a Construction Permit for these units is not being withdrawn since the project could be continued at another location in another state. Since the plant under current conditions cannot be sited in the State of Oregon, it would appear that the currently scheduled alternate
