Dear Administrative Judges:

As usually happens, in the cold light of dawn today I found some mildly embarrassing typographical and editorial errors in the pleading filed the night before. The more significant errors which should be corrected in "Applicant's Response to Motions of Intervenors Mary Sinclair and Barbara Stamiris with respect to Dow Lawsuit" dated August 17, 1983 are as follows:

page 11, fn. 5, line 5:	"heterogenerous" should be "heterogeneous"
page 19, fn. 10, line 4:	"section entitled" should be added at the end of this line after the word "at" and before the comma.

A period should be added after
"contentions"

page 27, fn. 16

"(emphasis added)" should be added
at the end of the footnote.

There are other typographical errors which are probably not worth correcting but for which I also apologize.

Sincerely,

Philip P. Steptoe
