Re: CONSUMERS POWER COMPANY -
Midland Plant Units 1 and 2

Dear Mr. Karr:

I have just realized that the document request attached to the subpoenas, issued on May 9, 1983 and served upon your clients, was not correct. I enclose a copy of the proper document request. Apparently, the request we had been using for the subpoenas to the known affiants was used.

The correct document request was included in the original application and attached to subpoenas issued earlier this year by Judge Bechhoefer. These subpoenas were sent to your clients, rather to our Washington office, through clerical error.

I apologize for the confusion and any inconvenience this may have caused. Perhaps, this will clarify the problems you have with the depositions. If not, we remain willing to discuss the terms of an appropriate protective order.

Very truly yours,

Susan D. Proctor
