Subject: Implementation Schedule for Generic Letter 93-04, "Rod Control System Timing Modification"

Gentlemen:

North Atlantic Energy Service Corporation (North Atlantic) in a letter dated April 29, 1994, [Reference (c)], committed to provide an update report concerning the status of the remaining actions associated with Generic Letter 93-04. In response to that commitment, North Atlantic provides the following information. North Atlantic performed the Westinghouse Owners Group recommended surveillance test during the third refueling outage. In addition, North Atlantic is planning to install the Rod Control Timing Modification during the refueling outage which is currently scheduled to begin in January 1996.

Should you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact Mr. James M. Peschel, Regulatory Compliance Manager, at (603) 474-9521, extension 3772.

Very truly yours,

Ted C. Feigenbaum
