Re: Georgia Power Company (Vogtle Electric Generating Plant, Units 1 and 2)
NRC Docket Nos. 50-424-OLA-3, 50-425-OLA-3; License Amendment for Transfer to Southern Nuclear Operating Company

Dear Charles:

On March 30, 1994 I wrote you in response to two questions you asked. One of your questions was "what was the GPC procedure that stated, in case of a significant event at Plant Vogtle, the on-call Project Manager was to notify both Mr. Dahlberg and Mr. Farley." In response to that question, I stated that

Plant Vogtle Procedure No. VNS-EP-04, entitled "Duties of the On-Call Project Manager," describes the reporting of significant events by the corporate "duty manager." Section 4.2.1 of the procedure must be read in conjunction with Plant Vogtle Procedure No. VNS-EP-05 and the "Telephone List - On-call Project Manager." (footnote omitted)

In addition, I referred you to GPC's April 1, 1991 response to the Section 2.206 petition of Messrs. Marvin Hobby and Allen Mosbaugh, Attachment 1, p. 12 and Exhibit 18.

GPC recently corrected that portion of GPC's April 1, 1991 response referenced in my March 30 letter. See letter from GPC's Mr. George Hairston to Mr. William Russell of the NRC, dated August 30, 1994, a copy of which is attached. In 1990, the "Telephone List - On-call Project Manager" was a subset of the Corporate Emergency Telephone Directory. Although that telephone list was used in conjunction with Procedures VNS-EP-04 and 05, it did not require the On-call Project Manager to contact each of the individuals listed under the heading "Georgia Power Company Corporate Management." As stated in the attached

August 30 letter, the procedure required only that the On-call Project Manager contact the on-duty senior corporate executive. The procedure did not require that Mr. Dahlberg or Mr. Farley be contacted, although, as stated in GPC's April 1, 1991 response, they would have been contacted by Mr. McDonald or Mr. Hairston.

Very truly yours,

John Lamberski
