In this capacity I am responsible for, among other things, the fuel loading, testing and power ascension phases for the Catawba nuclear units. Schedules have been developed for these phases which take into account Duke Power Company's experience with such activities at its five operating nuclear reactors.

Fuel loading	May 1, 1984 thru May 11, 1984
Zero power physics testing (pre-critical)	May 12, 1984 thru July 27, 1984
0-5% power testing (plant critical)	August 3, 1984 thru August 21, 1984
5-100% power testing	August 27, 1984 thru January 8, 1985
