We have not had time to determine whether the NRC Staff, the State of New York, or the other intervenors approve of this proposed order. We will contact them immediately and advise the Board if any problems are raised.

Suffolk County and LILCO both recognize that "fine-tuning" of this proposed order of litigation may have to occur if particular witnesses have obligations that prevent them from appearing at the hearings on certain dates. If changes are necessary, we believe that they can be worked out among the parties as the need arises, if it does.

Counsel for Suffolk County has authorized LILCO counsel to file this proposed order.

Respectfully submitted,

LONG ISLAND LIGHTING COMPANY
