In the Matter of Philadelphia Electric Company
(Limerick Generating Station, Units 1 and 2)
Docket Nos. 50-352 and 50-353

Gentlemen:

This morning, as directed by the Licensing Board, we hand delivered to the Board copies of "Applicant's Answer to 'Revised Issues of Concern of the City of Philadelphia in the Area of [Offsite] Emergency Planning.'"

Concurrently, we received "Restated Issues of Concern of the City of Philadelphia in the Area of Emergency Planning" from counsel for the City of Philadelphia, which respecifies its "Revised Issues" and bases. Although the attached certificate of service indicates delivery by Federal Express on May 31, 1984, the Federal Express envelope indicates that it was given to Federal Express for delivery on Friday, June 1, 1984.

In order to meet the Board's filing deadline, we were unable to respond to any particular aspect of the City's "Restated Issues of Concern" as such within our Answer. On review, however, it appears that our Answer responds to each of the items restated by the City of Philadelphia. Accordingly, Applicant does not intend to supplement its Answer unless requested to do so by the Licensing Board.

Sincerely,
