STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The above, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

I, D.A. Rockwell, am Special Projects Engineer for the Pacific Gas and Electric Company at the Diablo Canyon Nuclear Power Plant. In such capacity, I work directly with management of Pullman Power Products and the H.P. Foley Company who are contractors on site at the Diablo Canyon Nuclear Project. In such capacity I am informed of personnel shifts and force changes of each organization. I have caused that the employment files be reviewed of the three individuals who were identified in the May 17, 1984 submittal of PGandE: Mr. J. McDermott, Mr. T. O'Neal, and Mr. J. Phillips. I have also investigated the possibility of the existence of any claims of harassment made by any of these three individuals as a result of the affidavits. Contrary to the representation of Thomas Devine, no harassment or reprisal by PGandE or its contractors against any of the three individuals has resulted from their anonymous allegations.

EXHIBIT 1

Mr. J. McDermott was hired by Pullman on May 13, 1983. In a scheduled force reduction on January 13, 1984, Mr. McDermott was let go by Pullman. He was rehired by Pullman on April 9, 1984. He currently works for Pullman.

Mr. J. Phillips was originally hired by PTGC on March 31, 1983 and, as part of a scheduled force reduction, was let go on March 23, 1984. His ranking in March 1984 was 143 out of 147. Subsequent to his layoff by PTGC he was hired by Pullman on April 9, 1984. He currently works for Pullman.

Mr. T. O'Neal was hired by Pullman as a QC inspector on July 5, 1983 and currently is working for Pullman in that capacity.

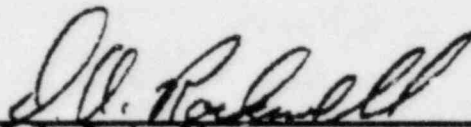

The two individuals who were laid off were let go as a result of legitimate reduction of force, and not as the result of any allegation or affidavit they may have signed. Both were let go prior to April 26, 1984, the date when NRC first released the affidavits to PGandE.

Investigation has revealed no reports of harassment by any of these three individuals as a result of their allegations. There have been no reports to their supervisors. There have been no hot-line reports, and there have been no reports by union representatives regarding these individuals.

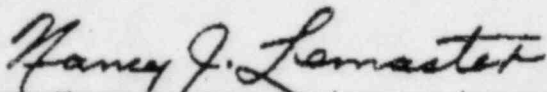

Mr. T. O'Neal did for the first time come to my office on June 12, 1984, the day after the Joint Intervenors motion was filed, to speak to me about his alleged quality concerns. He demanded my written response to his concerns.

He did not inform me of any physical threats, social harassment or reprisals of any kind resulting from his allegations.

1 pivotal grounds for the request for the protective order are
2 based on, at best, a misleading affidavit.⁵

3 As acknowledged by this Board in the case of 4 Consumers Power Company (Midland Units 1 and 2) ALAB-764,
5 supra., the informer protection extends only to the identity
6 of the informer and not to the substance of the information
7 provided.⁶ See Roviaro v. United States, supra. at 60.

8 Applicant has no other means of access to the 9 allegations which are contained in Exhibits 3, 4, 7, and 10.
10 It is the substance of those allegations and not the identi-
11 ty of the allegers which is of importance to Applicant,
12 Staff, and this Board.

13
15 ⁵This pivotal allegation should give the Board cause to 16 question the veracity and forthrightness of Joint 17 Intervenor's allegations. While the allegation in the 18 affidavit is that the three individuals were either laid off
19 or suffered harassment since February 16, 1984, it is clear 20 that the layoffs were not related to their affidavits and 21 that the individuals involved were even reemployed prior to the release of their affidavits. It is also clear that there is an absence of harassment as a result of their allegations. Given such inclination to stretch the facts, this Board must scrutinize all claims of Joint Intervenor's.

22 ⁶As in the Consumers Power case ALAB 764 supra., there
23 is no issue of privilege involved here. Any confidentiality
24 that may have existed between Thomas Devine, affiant, and 25 the anonymous allegers was clearly breached when disclosure
26 was made to Joint Intervenor's and their counsel. While Thomas Devine has acted, in other matters, on behalf of Mothers for Peace, one of the Joint Intervenor's, he is not counsel of record on behalf of all Joint Intervenor's in this action.
