ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REGARDING THE APPENDIX R REANALYSIS

On May 1, 1984, Vepco submitted a portion of its Appendix R fire protection reanalysis for the North Anna Power Station. The submittal consisted of descriptions of the modifications necessary to achieve compliance with Appendix R, the associated schedules, and several requests for exemptions.

In response to a May 15, 1984, informal NRC staff request, we are submitting the attached additional information. This information consists of a summary comparison of Vepco's 1984 Appendix R reanalysis and Vepco's June 22, 1982 Post-Fire Safe Shutdown Review. The summary is commonly referred to as the "Delta Report".

The attached information should be incorporated into the May 1, 1984, submittal in accordance with the enclosed Table of Changes. Please contact us immediately if you have any questions.
