Dear Mr. Schwencer:

We are pleased to provide the following information to support the resolution of SER proposed license conditions 8, 9, 10 and 12 and to assist in your preparation of license condition 14.

In order to demonstrate our compliance to SER license conditions 8, 9, 10 and 12, Reference (1) provided various design aspects (with respect to onsite stand-by power and security provisions) of the following shared, safety related systems: emergency service water (ESW), residual heat removal service water (RHRSW), control structure chilled water (CSCW), and control room and control structure ventilation (CRCSV). Pursuant to your request for additional information in Reference (2), Attachment (1) provides more detail of special security provisions during Unit 1 operation/Unit 2 construction for the ESW, RHRSW and CRCSV systems. As noted in reference (1), the CSCW system is located entirely within the Unit 1 security boundary; therefore, no special security provisions are required for this system.
