MOTION BY CHARLES HUSTED TO REFER
CONSIDERATION OF THE COMMONWEALTH
OF PENNSYLVANIA'S MOTION TO DISQUALIFY
THE LAW FIRM OF SHAW, PITTMAN, POTTS & TROWBRIDGE

On May 28, 1985, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania filed a motion to disqualify Mr. Charles Husted's current counsel from representing Mr. Husted in the proceeding that he has requested concerning his integrity. See letter from counsel for Mr. Husted, dated March 25, 1985, responding to opportunity for hearing provided by CLI-85-2 (Feb. 26, 1985), slip op. at 54-55. The hearing in question has not yet been convened, and an administrative law judge has not yet been appointed to hear the case. Under these circumstances, Mr. Husted respectfully requests that the Commission defer the Commonwealth's motion until such time as these events have occurred and, at that time, refer the motion to the administrative law judge for his consideration. Once an administrative law judge has been appointed for the proceeding, he can establish an appropriate schedule for responding to the Commonwealth's motion. See 10

C.F.R. § 2.717(a).

Respectfully submitted,
