Dear Mr. Devine:

This will confirm our telephone conversation today regarding the pending teleconference calls we have planned with two of your clients.

On May 2, 1985, we will talk with Mr. Harold Hudson beginning at 9:00 a.m., Pacific time. Beginning at 4:30 p.m., Pacific time, we will talk with

At a time yet to be agreed upon, we have tentatively scheduled a third teleconference call for May 15, 1985, with I understand you believe this date will be satisfactory with. If this date is inconvenient, please let me know of an alternate date that week which may be more suitable.

On May 2, 1985, I believe you mentioned you plan to be in the San Luis Obispo area. Accordingly, to initiate our 9:00 a.m. call on that date, I propose to call you at your California phone number(s). If the numbers I should use are other than those which you left with my office earlier this month, I trust you will let me know.

Sincerely,

Lewis W. Shollenberger, Jr.
