Some of these existing systems are well defined, at least well enough defined so interfaces can be determined in enough detail for the Phase III general design. However, some of the newer systems are in such early stages of development that it has not been possible to define interfaces with ISIS until recently.  Among the safeguards-related information systems that are under development are the NRC Document Control System, with which ISIS may interface and the NRC Export-Import Licensing Data System in International Programs, which may become a part of ISIS."  (2) To the existing list under Task II.1 on page 8 of 18 of the contract add: "NRC Document Control System and NRC Export-Import Licensing Data System in International Programs."

- (4) Results of this Change Order Task shall be included in the Phase II Final Report. The balance of this task remains unchanged.

Your attention is directed to the changes clause written below. Please note that any claim by the Contractor for adjustment under this clause must be asserted within 30 days from the date of receipt by the Contractor of the notification of change.

Clause No. 2--Changes

"The Contracting Officer may at any time, by a written order, and without notice to the sureties, make changes, within the general scope of this contract, in any one or more of the following:

- i) Drawings, designs, or specifications, where the supplies to be furnished are to be specially manufactured for the Government in accordance therewith;
- ii) method of shipment or packing; and
- iii) place of delivery.

If any such change causes an increase or decrease in the cost of, or the time required for, the performance of any part of the work under this contract, whether changed or not changed by any such order, an equitable adjustment shall be made in the contract price or delivery schedule, or both, and the contract shall be modified in writing accordingly. Any claim by the Contractor for adjustment under this clause must be asserted within 30 days from the date of receipt by the Contractor of the notification of change: Provided, however, That the Contracting Officer, if he decides that the facts justify such action, may receive and act upon any such claim asserted at any time prior to final payment under this contract. Where the cost of property made obsolete or excess as a result of a change is included in the Contractor's claim for adjustment, the Contracting Officer shall have the right to prescribe the manner of disposition of such property. Failure to agree to any adjustment shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes." However, nothing in this clause shall excuse the Contractor from proceeding with the contract as changed."
