B. Statement of Work

To ensure an adequate and in-depth review of research results, the Contractor shall perform the following tasks:

1. Prepare working session briefings to be used in the review process of ISIS phases I, II, and III for the Coordinating Group at NRC Headquarters or BCS.
2. Conduct up to four briefing sessions for the NRC Coordinating Group on selected topics. All such topics shall be within the general subject area of safeguards information requirements, assessment of existing systems, and the ISIS general design. The Government shall provide the Contractor topics for briefing on or before June 1, 1978. Such briefings shall be conducted at NRC Headquarters or BCS.
3. Analyze the implementation of a partial ISIS by service modules with six alternative service modules configurations from the ISIS phase III report to be specified by the COTR. The Government shall specify the alternative configurations within ten days after execution of this document.
4. Perform a cost/benefit analysis on each service module configuration alternative defined in Task 3. The cost/benefit analysis shall include comparisons among current and mid-1980 periods with and without the specified ISIS alternative. The results of the cost/benefit analysis will be used by the coordinating committee in formulating its recommendations for implementing a safeguards information system. The results should be general in nature and not complicated or detailed effort.

C. Deliverables/Schedule

1. Briefing Session Summary

The Contractor shall prepare five copies of a summary of each briefing session conducted. Such summaries shall be delivered within two weeks after each briefing.

2. Initial Cost/Benefit Analysis Report

The Contractor shall compile initial results of the cost benefit analysis performed under Task 4 into a cost/benefit analysis briefing to be delivered with five copies of the briefing material by July 10, 1978.

3. Final Report

The Contractor shall prepare a final report in five copies providing complete documentation of work accomplished under Tasks 3 and 4 and summary information of work accomplished under Tasks 1 and 2. Such report shall be delivered to the NRC by August 15, 1978

11. Regarding Article IV - Period of Performance, add "the performance of the work described herein shall be completed by August 15, 1978."
