Subject: TRUCK DRIVER ACCIDENTLY KILLED AT IRRADIATOR PARKING LOT

During a routine load pickup at Isomedix Operations Inc.'s parking lot in Groveport, Ohio, a truck driver was killed about 4 p.m. CST when a truck cab rolled over him while he was hooking the cab up to a trailer. Preliminary findings indicate the driver failed to put on the cab's brakes.

The trailer contained irradiated products but there was no radioactive material involved in this incident.

Isomedix operates a large pool-type irradiator that is used to sterilize medical and consumer products.

NMSS and the State of Ohio have been notified. The licensee notified the NRC (Region III) at 3:45 p.m. CST. This information is current as of 4:15 p.m. CST on February 2, 1993.
