Transmittal of Westinghouse Documents Requested by the USNRC at the South Texas Mechanical Engineering Branch
Review on June 26, 1985

Dear Mr. Denton:

Enclosed is one copy of the subject document which was requested at the South Texas Mechanical Engineering Branch Audit review. This document contains information which is proprietary to Westinghouse. Accordingly, we request that this information be withheld from public disclosure. By copy of this letter, one copy of this document is being transmitted to NRC consultants E. C. Rodabaugh Associates, Inc., Hilliard, Ohio, and one copy to Sam Moore, Y-12 Plant, Oak Ridge, Tennessee, at the request of P. Kadambi, NRC, Project Manager, for the purpose of expediting review.

Document Number	Document Type	Title
CENC-1302	Analytical Report	Analytical Report for South Texas Project #1 Houston Lighting and Power Company (Proprietary)

In order not to delay this submittal of information requested by the Commission, we will comply with the requirements of 10 CFR 2.790 to provide proprietary and non-proprietary versions together with an affidavit as soon as the proprietary information contained in the submittal has been specifically identified and the proprietary and non-proprietary versions have been prepared. We will submit the total required number of copies of the proprietary and non-proprietary versions of the information and the required affidavit at that time.

In the meantime, we have provided sufficient copies for you to initiate your review. E. Shomaker, Esq., of the NRC Office of the Executive Legal Director, has advised Westinghouse that he concurs with this procedure.

We expect to be able to fully comply with the requirements for the proprietary and non-proprietary versions of the information and an accompanying affidavit within four weeks.

Very truly yours,

WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRIC CORPORATION
