Dear Mr. Hashmi:

As you requested last week in Paris, attached are three copies of the draft Regulatory Guide DG-1046, "Guidelines for Reporting Reliability and Availability Information for Risk-Significant Systems and Equipment in Nuclear Power Plants." I have also attached copies of INEL-95/0035, "Emergency Diesel Generator Power System Reliability 1987-1993," INEL-94-0158, "High-Pressure Coolant Injection (HPCI) System Performance, 1987-1993 Final," and AEOD/S96-01 (INEL-95/0478), "Isolation Condenser System Reliability, 1987-1993" prepared under the direction of the Office for Analysis and Evaluation of Operational Data.

Sincerely,

original signed by
