Long Island Lighting Company
v. Transamerica Delaval, Inc.
Civil Action No. 85 CIV 6892

Gentlemen:

With this letter, LILCO is serving LILCO's First Set of Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents to Transamerica Delaval, Inc. As Jim Quinn and I discussed yesterday, we are willing to work with you with respect to the timing of Transamerica Delaval's responses or any other matters concerning these discovery requests.

Additionally, I propose the following arrangement with respect to service of all papers in the case. We will serve both Bob Smith and Ira Millstein and Jim Quinn in the same manner. Anything served by mail will be served by Express Mail or some other overnight service. In turn, we would appreciate your serving us in each of our three offices involved in the case as indicated on the Complaint. If by hand service is to be effected, of course, we may be served at our New York office but, in that case, we ask that you also serve us by overnight mail in Richmond and Raleigh.
