Gentlemen:

Subject: Response to Allegation

This acknowledges your July 19, 1985 letter concerning your allegation response program at Millstone 3 and describing your findings on the allegations forwarded to you by my letter of May 17, 1985.

We consider the allegation response program described in your letter to be a positive and significant step toward assuring an effective response on your part to worker concerns.

In regard to your findings on specific allegations, we will follow-up and evaluate these items during our routine inspections.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely, Original Signed By:
