Na-22, which is naturally occurring or produced in an accelerator is not byproduct material as defined in Section 30.4(d) of Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 30 and is not subject to licensing by the NRC. Therefore, you may procure and use it without amendment to your byproduct material license.

Since serious consequences to employees and the public can result from failure to comply with NRC requirements, the NRC expects licensees to pay meticulous attention to detail and to achieve the high standard of compliance which the NRC expects of its licensees.

You should contact your State regulatory authorities to determine the State licensing or registration requirements for use of this product.

Please be advised that you must conduct your program involving licensed radioactive materials in accordance with the conditions of your NRC license, representations made in your license application, and NRC regulations. In particular, please note the items in the enclosed, "Requirements for Materials Licensees."
