Att: Mr. Kenneth P. Barr
Ref: May 9, 1985 N.R.C. audit

Gentleman:

I am confirming and acknowledging the receipt of your letter on May 29, 1985, in respect to the notice of violation found during the above in referenced inspection audit performed by Mr. Lee A. Franklin on May 9, 1985.

In respect to the violation described in your letter for N.R.C. requirements CFR-20.407 (b), we admit that we incurred in this minor violation unknowingly, as noted by Mr. Franklin since it was our first full year of licensed activities. But nevertheless, we immediately proceeded in sending a copy of our annual personnel's exposure report to the attention of Mrs. Barbara Brooks on the same day of this audit to presently be in compliance with N.R.C. requirements.

We also sent a copy of this report to Mr. Lee A. Franklin at his Atlanta office on May 20, 1985 (see attached copies).

We have officially notified Mrs. Rose Marie Tauche, Manager of Eberline's dosimetry services to register with U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Comm., Washington D.C., a copy of our annual report of our employees whole body exposure ranges for each calendar year as a part of their annual dosimetry services, and also included a formalized letter sent via Certified Mail Mrs. Barbara Brook's attention.

Mrs. Tauche shall send us the certified letter returned receipt acknowledged by N.R.C. We have taken this corrective measures to assure that this type of violation will not arise in the near future.
