Docket Nos. 50-445 and 50-446 and 50-445/2 and 50-446/2

Dear Administrative Judges:

It has come to my attention that some words were inadvertently omitted from a quote contained in the "NRC Staff's Response to Licensing Board Questions Raised During October 15, 1985 Conference Call", filed on October 25, 1985. The quote in question is found on page 8. The correct reading of the first full sentence on that page should be (omitted words underlined):

It would remain a separate segment of the case even if there was not a separate Licensing Board, but the fact that a separate Board could be appointed with no practical difficulties of overlapping subject matter still existing between two Boards demonstrates the lack of connection of the Phase II issues to any non-emergency planning issues.

I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Sincerely,
