Dear Mr. Gaskin:

As we discussed in this morning's telecon, the reason for our November 15, 1996 request (copy attached) to change the schedule for the 1997 SNM inventory is no longer justified. Thus, the inventory date defaults back to one year from last inventory (about the Easter holiday); specifically, the week of March 31 - April 4, 1997.

If you have additional questions concerning this matter, please contact me.

Sincerely,

WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRIC CORPORATION
